

GreenPath Premieres Tiered Student Loan Counseling Options

By Mark Munzenberger, Student Loan and Housing Counseling Manager

About 40 million Americans owe $1.2 trillion in student loan debt. And one in four student loan borrowers are either in delinquency or default. If you or someone you know is stressing about student loans, help is just a phone call away.

GreenPath has been helping people with student loan advice and assistance for many years. Now we're taking those services to the next level by launching a new, dedicated Student Loan Services department.

If during your free counseling session, it is determined that you could benefit from a customized session to discuss options for managing your student loan debt, our new services are available to you.

Our student loan experts have completed an intensive training program to ensure that they know all about the many loan repayment options.

GreenPath has created two tiers of service to help student loan borrowers regain their financial footing:

- Student Loan Counseling ($50) – This 30-45 minute counseling session is a great first step. A highly-trained student loan expert will:
 - Review each of your student loans. We'll assess how much you owe, payment terms, and repayment program eligibility for each loan.
 - Explore your repayment options. We'll help you understand the pros and cons of each option.
 - Develop a customized plan. We'll provide unbiased advice, and create a plan just for you.
- Student Loan Enhanced Support ($200) – These 60-90 minute sessions are conducted by appointment only. The enhanced support session is tailored for borrowers who need additional assistance. This is especially helpful if you're in default or having trouble with your loan servicer(s). A certified student loan expert will:

- Conduct an in-depth analysis. We will examine both federal and private student loans, and will seek payment arrangements that fit your financial situation.
- Address delinquent and defaulted loans. We will create a plan to bring delinquent loans current, and rehabilitate defaulted loans.
- Help you submit paperwork. If appropriate, we'll help you apply for student loan repayment programs based on your employment and/or income.
- Contact your loan servicer(s). We'll partner with you every step of way until a final resolution is reached.

Some borrowers want to aggressively pay down their loans as quickly as possible, to avoid additional interest expense. Others need a lower monthly payment to help establish a workable monthly budget.

GreenPath's experts will partner with you to understand your goals, and help you determine which repayment option is best for you. You'll always get knowledgeable, trustworthy guidance.

New Name Coming Soon

In April, GreenPath Debt Solutions will change its name to GreenPath Financial Wellness.

So, why the name change? This is part of GreenPath's long-term strategy to help more people, and help people more. We want to be a resource for every person who has a financial goal or concern, not just those in debt. This is reflected in our new mission: Empowering people to lead financially healthy lives.

In the coming years, GreenPath will utilize technology in new ways to make it easier to access information and do business with us. In the future, we will also be adding new services to help more people.

Yes, we'll still be partnering with people to help them with credit card debt, student loan debt and mortgage debt. We'll offer financial services for people who want to save for retirement, stop living paycheck to paycheck, or prepare for major life events such as getting married, having a baby or caring for an aging parent.

We want to help ensure that you have Financial Wellness throughout your life. And we will be with you every step of the way!
